

I would like to strongly protest against allowing cell phone use in airplanes during flight. It is one of the few quiet zones left. I fly a lot. I would find it very difficult to have to listen to loud talking people on their cell phones during a flight.